LAUREL

Dear Eric,

Well, the time is here once again; the time to write you a novel. I don't know where to begin! We have done so many things together. This year has really been the greatest and most wonderful of all. I guess I'll begin with the common old word "Remember." Remember your parties and most of all our surprise parties. I was pretty surprised, I don't know about you. I'll bet if we had all the money we had spent at the movies (notice I said we) we'd be millionaires. Remember all our educating talks. I'd be the "dumbest" kid in the world if it weren't for you. I'll never forget all the hangouts. We really had some blasts especially when all of us came back together. Remember that night Beverly was out in the middle of the street when we were leaving Jackey's. [illegible] was really great [illegible] was just think of [illegible] cheerleaders. Remember all the [illegible] we have next year! "Droopy" T-bird? How could you ever forget? You are one of the only [illegible] THE greatest and nicest [illegible] I have ever known, except where I can't have my way. You have really shown me some great times that I can never forget. I really forget about our arguments because it is not! We really have had our ups & downs, don't we? Between it or not, I'll have to admit that we have been really fun. I guess everybody has them, [illegible] Cancer is invisible't meant to be old.

You are one of the "dumbest" kids I have ever met when it comes to science projects! HA. HA.

Remember Sue's little apt near my house? I'll never forget [illegible] But of course you're [illegible] HA! HA! HA! HA! I'll [illegible]

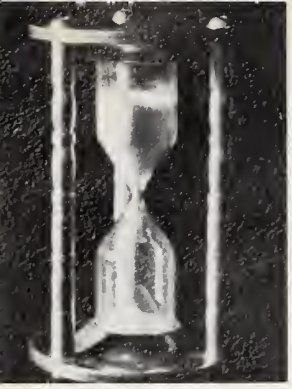
MILLBROOK HIGH SCHOOL

Millbrook, N.C.



Clubs and Departments

Foreword

Just as each grain of sand sifts through an hour-glass to represent the passing of time, so does our 1962 LAUREL represent passing of days of this year at Millbrook High School. As we turn the pages of the annual, the sands of time flow rapidly. To preserve these grains so that they may not be forgotten is our aim in the presentation of this 1962 LAUREL.

Dedication

We are indebted to a great lady of Millbrook. A kind and understanding woman who has always been a guiding light and inspiration to the youngsters of our school as they advance to higher standards of life.

For the many years she has spent helping the students at M.H.S., we the Senior Class, with deep appreciation, dedicate this 1962 Laurel to Mrs. Essie J. Price.

For 6 years Mrs. Price has had a tremendous job teaching a special education class. During these years she has taught without the first sign of impatience or complaint.

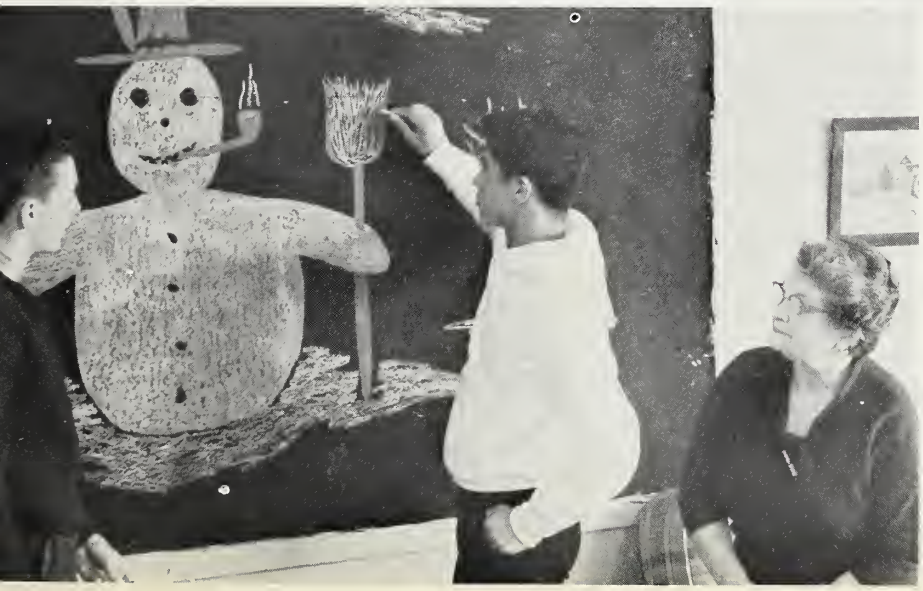
Time for Others

Mrs. Johnston, Millbrook's first full-time counselor, deserves the gratitude of many students for her untiring efforts in their behalf.

Mrs. Dalton, high school librarian, and Mrs. Winslow, elementary librarian; two patient ladies who are always willing to help.



Thanks to Mrs. Price, our special education pupils can receive the time and patience they need.

. . . to Bunkey Morgan, our mailman. "Neither rain nor sleet nor snow . . . "

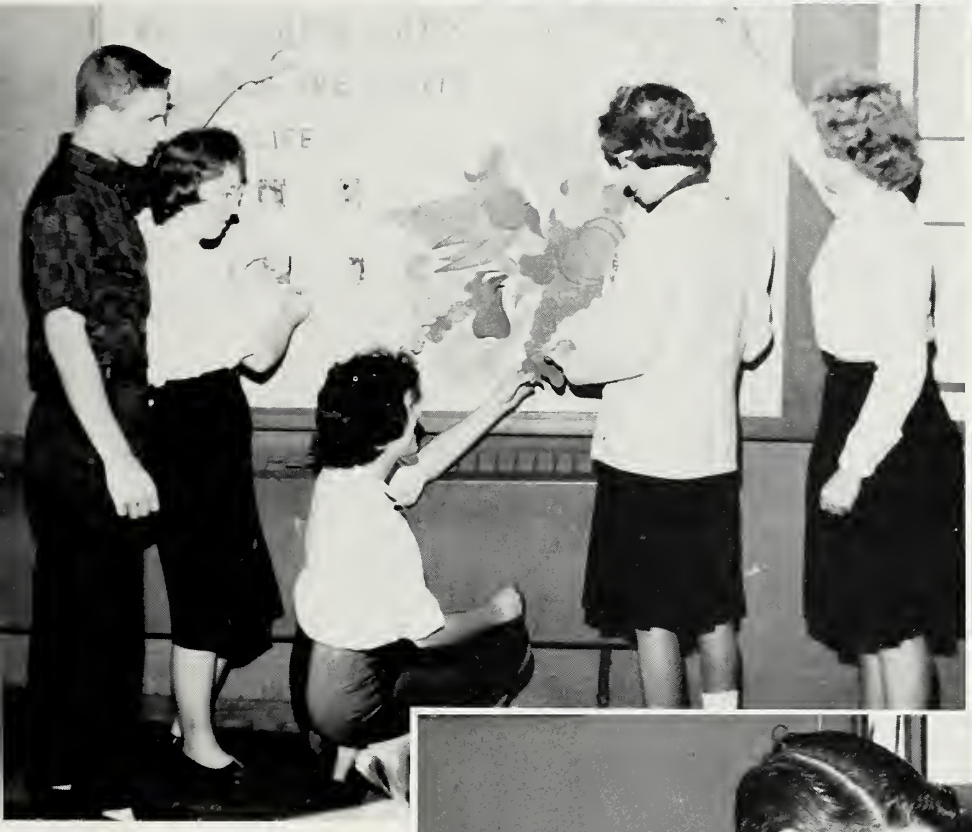
Our Appreciation . . .

. . . to our bus drivers. Millbrook's mechanical men are a fine group who know and practice daily the meaning of responsibility.



. . . to Eric Lortz, Judy Bartlett, Pat Heinsohn, Jean Moseley, and Sandi Taylor, who concoct those beautiful bulletin boards in the hall.

. . . to Larry Tysor, Millbrook's "Michaelangelo." His artistic handiwork is in evidence all around the school, and includes the mill scene at last year's Junior-Senior, the Madonna and Child at Christmas, several sketches of the teachers, and nearly all the annual illustrations.

Studying the Past to Understand the Present

Mrs. Sparks' TV U. S. History class. (The empty places in this picture are due to the flu.)

Mrs. Thomas, who also teaches freshman and senior English, enlightens her civics class.

And Mr. Stott, who enjoys hearing his economics and sociology class argue - as long as they don't overdo it.

Science: For To

Mr. Stephenson explains a density problem to a confused physics class.

SCIENCE CLUB OFFICERS: Jimmie Dalton, Sheila Wentzel, Maureen Murray, Scott Booth. Advisor: Mr. Stephenson.

Mrs. Yelton shows some members of her general science class the principles of a wet-dry thermometer.

The organs of a frog are explained to biology students by Mrs. Yelton, who also teaches English.

Mr. Stott's girls' health class illustrates one of the more "physical" sciences. Had your Wheaties today, girls?

LAUREL STAFF

Many hours of hard work are put forth by these students. Unless you have worked on the annual staff, you don't know what a demanding and suspenseful job it is; there's always that creeping fear that you're not going to make each deadline, but somehow you do, and here's the result. Frankly, we couldn't be prouder!

Jean Moseley
Class Co-Ed.

Tommy Wagner and Rik Danielson, our photographers, without whom this annual would have had 124 blank spaces!

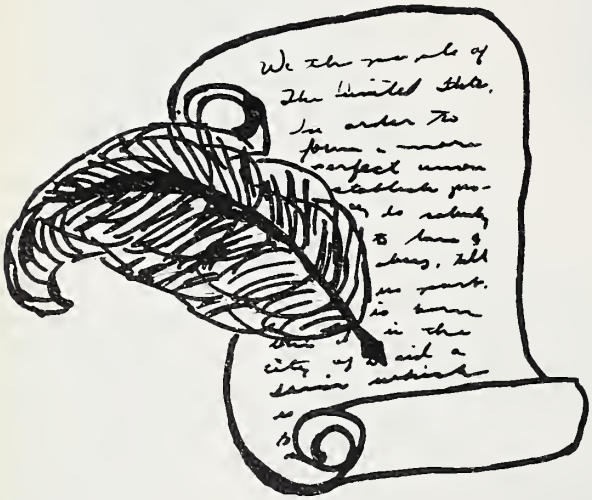
BLUENOTES STAFF



The Bluenotes staff, under Mrs. Pollard's direction, produces an interesting issue each month.

Editor: MAUREEN MURRAY
Circulation: DOROTHY PORTER
Production: LINDA JONES
Social: LUCREATIA JONES

These people and many other contributors have done a commendable job, and have initiated the Junior Bluenotes, which has been a huge success in the elementary department here and at Effie Green.

So what if we have big heads? We're SENIORS!

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1958, we, a class of ninety-nine freshmen, the largest in the history of the school, entered Millbrook High School. We were expected to live up to our size - to do things in a big way. We started our freshman year by electing Earl Woodlief, Tommy Wetmore, Susan Van Brunt, Jimmy Edwards, Betsy Jeffreys, and Kay LeNeave to lead our class. The student council broke the social ice surrounding us "green" freshmen by giving a very successful dance in our honor. Crossing the obstacles that lay ahead for all beginners was a hard task for our class; but finally we surmounted these barriers which opened the path to a bright and hopeful future as sophomores.

With the coming of September, 1959, the class of '62 prepared for a new school year - a little less doubtful and a little more confident of that which was in store for the next nine months. Of course, to start the year, we elected Butch Martin, Bobby Hicks, Susan Van Brunt, Betsy Jeffreys, Pat Smith, and Gayle Paige as class officers. To raise funds in order to sponsor our Junior-Senior, the Sophomore Class gave its traditional Sweetheart Dance. Truly, this dance was one of the most beautiful and memorable occasions of our sophomore year. Somehow we managed to have a good fling and still squeeze in enough time for studies to make it into our Junior year.

To most of us, the school year of 1960-'61 is one that will remain very dear to our hearts. Work was nothing to us; we were preparing for the most wonderful time of our lives. To get the ball rolling, we elected Tommy Wetmore, Bobby Hicks, Kay LeNeave, Ronnie Carver, Brenda Boyd, and Linda Swiggett as our officers. Quickly we set up the committees for our magazine sales, which were a big success. We were relieved to find that we had enough money to give the seniors, and ourselves, a grand Junior-Senior. Finally, all our dreams, schemes, and hard work became a reality - a dance that everyone who attended will always remember as the night of nights. The setting was the beautiful Plantation Inn, befitting the theme of "The Old South"; the theme song, "Carolina Moon," certainly complimented that lovely night. But all dreams come to an end, and we finished our Junior year, awaiting eagerly the climax of our high school years.

September, 1961, finally rolled around. That first day of school we all looked around expecting everything to have changed - why? We knew but nobody else seemed to have noticed - we were SENIORS! We saw those timid freshmen; memories recalled that first fearful day for us, also. We have come a long way. We have traveled a rough path, but are filled with sweet, nostalgic memories. We, above everyone else, can sense a dearness to that familiar hall and those well-worn desks. There is only one day we wait for, but meanwhile life must go on as usual. We elected Bobby Hicks, president; Ronnie Carver, vice president; Kay LeNeave, secretary; Aaron Womble, treasurer; Johnny Walton, reporter; and Gordon Stephenson, historian; to accept a large responsibility as officers of the Senior Class. To be assured that our senior memories would be preserved, Brenda Boyd and Karen Schwall were made editors of "our" annual this brings us to the present. We look forward to graduation with eagerness and anticipation. We will leave Millbrook behind us, but we will carry her memory many years and many miles away. With each drop of sand that sifts through the hour-glass, the Senior Class of 1962 moves forward.

Dear Eric,

I'll never forget you and your wonderful personality. Shellwood couldn't get along without you. Next year you'll be top in everything! Your mine this year to me. Of you + Brenda - my break-up you know who will date you! Be good + sweet especially to Brenda - she thinks so much of you!

Always,
Joanne

Eric,

I have thoroughly enjoyed knowing you this year. We have really had some fun-filled times together - especially on the bus, huh? Stay as cute but as sweet as you are now and you'll always have many friends. See you next year!

Barbara

Dear Eric,
I have really enjoyed knowing you and being in some classes with you this year. I hope that you will have the best of luck in all you do.

Jennifer Ballog

Dear Eric,
It's been nice knowing you these past years. Remember all the laughs we've had in French and keep smiling. Best of luck in all you do.
